Q: Is the ALEC Annual Meeting taking place in-person this year?

Yes, the ALEC Annual Meeting will be held July 15th to July 17th, 2020 at the JW Marriott Grande Lakes in Orlando, FL. Register here today!

Q: How do I make a hotel reservation at the JW Marriott Grande Lakes?

You can book online through our reservation link or you can contact the JW Marriott Grande Lakes directly at (407) 206-2300 and let them know you are attending the ALEC Annual Meeting.

Q: I registered a while ago, but I no longer feel safe traveling to Annual Meeting. Will I receive a refund?

We are carefully monitoring the situation, and should you need to cancel, we will work with attendees according to our cancellation policy. If you are feeling ill or have encountered someone who has tested positive for COVID-19, please do not attend the meeting.

Q: Can my registration be transferred to a future meeting should the ALEC Annual Meeting get cancelled?

Yes, if plans for our conference change, you can transfer your registration for the 47th ALEC Annual Meeting to the 2020 ALEC States and Nation Policy Summit. Any difference in pricing will be refunded.

Q: How will ALEC and the JW Marriott Grande Lakes be helping mitigate the spread of potentially infectious diseases at a conference?

ALEC and the JW Marriott Grande Lakes are partnering to provide a safe and secure meeting for all attendees. The hotel is installing hand sanitizer stations, bolstering their housekeeping services, and realigning current food and beverage service models to fit new food and beverage safety guidelines. Additionally, keyless check-in and entry will be available for all guests and guest rooms. To take advantage of this contact-less check-in option, please be sure to download the Marriott Bonvoy app on your smart phone prior to arriving at the hotel. For more information on the app and how to download, please visit the Marriott Bonvoy website.

In addition to the JW Marriott Grande Lakes' services, ALEC will be taking precautions to help minimize contact through a modified on-site registration process, meeting setups and offering a limited number of personal protective equipment along with personal size hand sanitizer for attendees.

Q: Will attendees be required to social distance?

ALEC will be following the local, state, and federal guidelines for gatherings and will enforce whatever the current guideline is at the time of the meeting.

Q: Will the entire conference take place on-site or will we be required to travel between different locations?

No activities will be taking place off-site.

Q: Will my hotel room be refunded if the conference is cancelled?

All hotel reservations should be handled directly through the JW Marriott Grande Lakes. Contact the JW Marriott Grande Lakes at (407) 206-2300 for the cancellation policy.

Q: What does ALEC's COVID-19 plan of action look like on-site?

ALEC values clear and concise communication. We will be honest and transparent should an emergency arise and communicate with attendees any necessary information immediately. ALEC will be working closely with local hospitals and the public health department to assure the health and safety of all attendees.

Q: What is the closest airport to the hotel?

Orlando International Airport (MCO) is approximately 10 miles (15 minute drive) to the JW Marriott Grande Lakes.

Q: Will taxis or Uber be available at the hotel?

Yes, there are taxis and ride sharing services available outside the hotel. Please visit the transportation tab for more details.

Q: Are there sponsorship opportunities available?

Yes, please contact Marie Vulaj (mvulaj@alec.org) for more information.

Q: Is there an opportunity to be an exhibitor at the 47th ALEC Annual Meeting?

Yes, please contact Gwen Hodge (ghodge@alec.org) for more information.

Q: Can media attend the ALEC event?

Please contact the ALEC media team (media@alec.org) with any media inquiries. You can view our media policy for meetings here.
