Reagan Club Giving Society

alec.org

"ALEC has forged a unique partnership between state legislators and leaders from the corporate and business community. This partnership offers businessmen the extraordinary opportunity to apply their talents to solve America's problems and build on our opportunities."

– President Ronald Reagan

Mission To advance limited government, free markets and federalism

Your ongoing support ensures the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) remains a strong leader in our shared values and can continue educating state legislators on how prosperity stems from good limited government, free market and federalist policy.

For decades, ALEC has provided training, education and a place for state legislators to come together and exchange ideas. ALEC proves that the best policies are even better when shared, ensuring legislators advance effective policies that increase opportunity and prosperity and don't repeat the mistakes of others.

Your support for ALEC ensures free market legislators have a home for years to come. Without your support, ALEC would not be able to produce and share policy analysis, ideas and real solutions that have benefited real Americans for decades.

Inside this pamphlet, you will find ALEC giving levels, recognitions and premiums that match any giving capacity. Regardless of your giving level, ALEC members and legislators appreciate your generosity in furtherance of their professional development, and our shared values.

A NOTE FROM OUR CEO

Throughout the history of ALEC, never has there been a stronger need for the advancement of its values. ALEC is taking the lead on helping state legislators counter the effects of the bloated federal government and the need for education on the values of limited government, free markets and federalism. By joining the Reagan Club or upgrading your giving level this year, we can ensure our shared vision for this country is being upheld at every level of government! Please consider continuing your generous support for our organization and for this country. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lisa B. Nelson
ALEC Chief Executive Officer
